

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 25, 2022

Tony Kanaan to take part in Youth Cycling Night on Aug. 4

Indy 500 winner and avid cyclist Tony Kanaan will take part in IU Health Momentum Indy's Youth Cycling Night at the Riley Children's Health Sports Legends Experience at The Children's Museum of Indianapolis on Aug. 4.

The outdoor Sports Legends Experience will be transformed into a bicycling wonderland with obstacle courses, safety demonstrations, helmet giveaways, community booths and more.

Kanaan, who also serves on the museum's board of trustees, said, "Cycling is such a great way to maintain fitness, and it's accessible to anyone with a bike and a helmet. I look forward to racing kids on the bike obstacle course at the event."

The event runs 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. with Kanaan's appearance, including him sharing inspiring stories, from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m.

WHAT: IU Health Momentum Indy Youth Cycling Night
WHEN: Aug. 4, 4-8 p.m.
WHERE: Riley Children's Health Sports Legends Experience at The Children's Museum of Indianapolis
COST: $6 per person; free parking
INFO: <https://www.childrensmuseum.org/visit/calendar/event/273>

###

About the IU Health Momentum Indy

IU Health Momentum Indy is a two-day outdoor festival celebrating healthy lifestyles through cycling events, family fun and fitness activities. Held in the heart of downtown Indianapolis, it offers attendees both an evening street-party vibe and community-festival feel, with plenty of opportunities to watch cycling events, join organized rides or participate in health-focused activities for all ages. A nonprofit founded in 2010, the IU Health Momentum Indy has contributed more than $180,000 in event proceeds to local nonprofits supporting youth development, workforce development, and health and wellness. More at <https://www.momentumindy.org/>.

MEDIA CONTACT: Jen Schmits Thomas, 317-441-2487, jen@jtprinc.com